

On July 15, 2021, the Times of India newspaper front page headlines covered a range of news topics. The main headline was about the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic in India, with the country recording 38,792 new cases and 624 deaths in the past 24 hours. Another headline discussed the Indian government's decision to hold the monsoon session of Parliament from July 19 to August 13, amidst concerns over the COVID-19 situation. The front page also highlighted the latest developments in the Pegasus spyware scandal, with the opposition demanding a probe into the alleged snooping. Additionally, there were reports on the Taliban gaining territory in Afghanistan, the Union government's announcement to set up a tribunal to resolve disputes related to inter-state river water sharing, and the Indian men's hockey team winning their second consecutive match in Tokyo Olympics.
